Claims for Past Voluntary Care

What is a claim for past voluntary care?

Sometimes awards or settlements from a court to a person who has an injury take a long time to process and approve. A claim for past voluntary care means the family member, close friend or guardian who looked after the person may be eligible to apply for reimbursement once the award or settlement has been approved.

If you have any questions about past care claims, please contact the Client Establishment team on 1300 507 811 or email clientestablishmentfm@tag.nsw.gov.au